

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Saturday July 28. to Tuesday July 31, 1792.

Whitehall, July 31.

THE following Address of the High Sheriff, Nobility, Gentlemen, Clergy, Freeholders and other Inhabitants of the County of Huntingdon has been presented to the King by Mr. Brown, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the High Sheriff, Nobility, Gentlemen, Clergy, Freeholders, and other Inhabitants of the County of Huntingdon, beg Leave to approach your Royal Person with our sincere and heartfelt Acknowledgements for the recent Instance of your Majesty's paternal Regard for your People, manifested in your late most gracious Proclamation for the Suppression of seditious Publications, and for the Preservation of Order and good Government.

Deeply sensible of the manifold Blessings which we enjoy under the mild and equitable Reign of your Majesty, as well as of the great Advantages of our most excellent Constitution, we have beheld with Indignation the daring Attempts of wicked and seditious Men to disturb the Public Tranquillity, by propagating Opinions totally subversive of all legal Authority and Subordination.

But we indulge the pleasing and well-grounded Hope, that all such wicked Attempts will be frustrated by the Wisdom and Vigour of your Majesty's Councils, aided by the Loyalty and the good Sense of your People.

The following Address of the Warden, Six Assistants, High Steward and Town Clerk of Louth in the County of Lincoln, and the Gentlemen, Clergy, and principal Inhabitants of the same Town and Neighbourhood, has been presented to the King by Sir Joseph Banks, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Warden, Six Assistants, High Steward and Town Clerk of Louth in the County of Lincoln, and the Gentlemen, Clergy and principal Inhabitants of the same Town and Neighbourhood, beg Leave to tender to your Majesty our most cordial Thanks for the salutary Warning and Commands issued to us in your late Proclamation; and to express our utmost Abhorrence of the Infatuation and Wickedness of those Persons who, in Opposition to your Majesty's Concern for the Welfare of your People, have endeavoured to undermine the Foundations of our excellent Constitution, by spreading, in seditious Publications amongst the Ignorant and Unwary, the Seeds of Jealousy and Discontent. Permit us to assure your Majesty, that in Obedience to your Royal Requisition we will, as far as our Power extends, guard against and counteract all Attempts to disturb public Peace and Order, and exert ourselves in bringing to legal Conviction and Punishment the Authors of all tumultuous and riotous Proceedings.

May the Great Disposer of all Events grant us the Continuance of our peculiar Happiness, under the Protection of your Majesty and our ancient and invaluable Constitution. Long may you reign possessing the Affections of a People peaceful, free and happy.

The following Address of the Mayor, Jurats and Common Councillors of the Corporation of Gravesend and Milton, has been presented to the King by Sir William Fawcett, Governor of Gravesend, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bedchamber chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Jurats and Common Councillors of the Corporation of Gravesend and Milton, in the County of Kent, in Burghmote assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Jurats and Common Councillors of the Corporation of Gravesend and Milton, humbly beg Leave to express to your Majesty our unfeigned Thanks for your Majesty's benign Attention to the Interests and Happiness of your People.

At the present Moment we feel ourselves called upon, in an especial Manner, to evince our Gratitude for your Majesty's well-timed Exertions to suppress and prevent a rising Spirit of Sedition.

Convinced of the Blessings which we, in common with the rest of your Majesty's Subjects, enjoy, under the present System of Government, we will earnestly endeavour to preserve the same inviolate; and, with the utmost Sincerity and Truth, we assure your Majesty of our unshaken Loyalty, of our constant Efforts in Favour of Order and Tranquillity, and of our firm Attachment to the Laws and established Constitution in Church and State.

Given under our Common Seal this 16th Day of July, in the Thirty-second Year of your Majesty's Reign; and signed by Order of Court,

John Evans, Town Clerk.

Whitehall, July 31.

THE following Addresses having been delivered or transmitted to the Right Honorable Henry Dundas, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, have been by him presented to the King: Which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Denbigh, humbly offer to your Majesty our unfeigned Gratitude and Thanks for your Majesty's constant Solitude for the Welfare and Happiness of your People, and this, particularly manifested, by your Majesty's late gracious Proclamation for the Suppression of such seditious Publications as might not only interrupt the temporary Peace and good Order of Society, but be productive of the most alarming and dangerous Consequences.

With Detestation and Regret we have seen the Press teeming with Doctrines calculated to destroy our excellent Constitution, the Envy and Admiration of surrounding Nations; and such as we have received it from our Ancestors, at the Expence of their Blood and Treasures, it is our bounden Duty to maintain, inviolate, and to transmit to Posterity, at the risk of our Lives and Fortunes.

Impressed with these Sentiments, we beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that no lawful Means of giving Effect to your Royal Proclamation shall be wanting on our Part, and that the greatest Happiness we can experience will be to live a free and loyal People in the Heart of a good and affectionate King.

[Transmitted by Thomas Jones, Esq; Sheriff of the County.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Merioneth.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Merioneth, beg Leave to approach your Majesty's Throne, and to express the warmest Sentiments of our Duty and Gratitude to your Majesty for your tender Regard to the true Happiness of your People, in issuing your late Royal Proclamation for suppressing Tumults and preventing seditious Publications and illegal Associations.

It becomes us, Sir, to be more sensibly thankful to the Caution and Wisdom of your Majesty's Council, as in these Parts of your Majesty's Empire every Stragem has been exerted to overthrow the established Religion. We have the utmost Confidence in your Majesty, and are ever prepared to forfeit our Lives and Fortunes in the Defence of our Country, its Constitution, and the illustrious House of Brunswick.

It shall be our particular Attention to be vigilant over the insidious Principles of disaffected and turbulent Minds, and to stem that Torrent of Anarchy and Confusion, which (happily for your Majesty's Kingdom and its Peace) seems to prevail alone amongst certain factious Citizens of erroneous Persuasion, who can (not with Indifference behold) but abet the horrid and alarming Perplexities which now ravage the Continent.

It is our most fervent Wish that your Majesty may be ever possessed of the Hearts of all your Subjects, which the Mildness of your Majesty's Government has so deservedly claimed. May that undisssembled Piety (of which your Majesty is so conspicuous an Example) effectually promote and recommend the Cause of Virtue and Religion; may it check the progressive Strides of Schism and Profaneness; and may that God, whom you so faithfully serve, long, very long, preserve your Majesty, the most beloved Sovereign of a dutiful, grateful, and affectionate People.

By Order of the County Meeting,

Edw. Corbet, Sheriff.

[Transmitted by Edward Corbet, Esq;]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Carnarvon, beg Leave to approach your Majesty to express our grateful Sense of your Majesty's paternal Attention to the Interest of your People, and our Approbation of that Proclamation, which has been so seasonably issued, to check the Dissemination of Principles incompatible with our Duty as Subjects, our Happiness as Men, and subversive of our glorious Constitution.

We have seen with Regret the Conduct of those whose intemperate Zeal would lead them to destroy that Liberty which they affect to recommend, and we are happy in having it in our Power to congratulate your Majesty on the good Effects that have already flowed from a Proclamation so timely issued; and we trust that the Check already given, and which has been so warmly seconded by the general Concurrence of our Fellow Subjects, will, in the End, be effectual to prevent those Disorders which, but for your Majesty's gracious Interposition, we had too much Reason to apprehend.

Firmly

Firmly attached as we are to your Majesty's Person and Government, and to our present happy Constitution, your Majesty may rely on our best Exertions to suppress all Publications and Attempts against the Peace and good Order of Society, and to secure our own Happiness, and the Welfare of Posterity, by transmitting to them, inviolate and unimpaired, a Constitution, which we consider as our brightest Glory, and their best Inheritance.

Ed. Lloyd, Sheriff.

[Transmitted by Robert Williams, Esq; Representative in Parliament for that County.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Freeholders, Justices of Peace and Heretors of the County of Cromarty, beg Leave to approach the Throne, and to assure your Majesty that we are most warmly attached to your Person and Family, and to the Government and Constitution of this Kingdom. We observe with Regret that divers seditious Writings have been published by evil-minded People, in order to raise groundless jealousies in the Minds of your faithful Subjects against our present happy Constitution. And it is with the utmost Satisfaction we observe, by your Majesty's late gracious Proclamation, that you are determined to preserve our Constitution from the Attacks of designing and deluded Men.

In our several Capacities, your Majesty may be assured of our strict Attention to the Recommendation contained in your Royal Proclamation.

That your Majesty's Reign may be long and prosperous, and that our Constitution may continue to be the Admiration of future, as it has been of past Ages, is our most ardent Prayer.

Signed in Name and by Appointment of the Meeting, at Cromarty, July 11, 1792.

K. Mackenzie, Præses.

[Transmitted by Duncan Davidson, Esq; Representative in Parliament for that County.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Magistrates, Grand Jury, and Gentlemen, assembled at the General Quarter Sessions of the Peace, holden by Adjournment at Spillby, for the Division of Lindsey, in the County of Lincoln, think it our indispensable Duty at this Season to express our grateful and unfeigned Acknowledgments for the recent Proof of your Majesty's increasing Attention to the Welfare of your People, by issuing a wise and reasonable Proclamation to check and suppress seditious Publications, and to avert the Mischiefs of Civil Tumult and Commotion.

Sensible of the Excellence of the British Constitution, and enjoying under your Majesty's mild and equitable Government every Blessing of Civil and Religious Liberty, we view, with the most serious Alarm, every Attempt to deprive us of those inestimable Advantages; we feel it the Duty of every good Citizen to exert himself upon an Occasion so momentous; and we beg Leave to assure your Majesty that we shall, as Magistrates, use every Endeavor, within the District for which we act, to promote your Majesty's gracious Intentions, and to give Efficacy to the Royal Proclamation.

By the Court,

Tho. Coltman, Chairman.

[Transmitted by Thomas Coltman, Esq;]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Portreeve, Capital Burgesses, and Principal Inhabitants of the Town of Chard, in the County of Somerset, impressed with Sentiments of the purest Loyalty and Affection toward your Majesty, beg Leave to offer our sincere and grateful Thanks for your Majesty's Attention to the Welfare and Happiness of your People in issuing your late Royal Proclamation for the suppressing seditious Writings, published and industriously circulated, with a View to weaken, in the Minds of your Majesty's Subjects, the Sentiments of submission to the Laws, and Attachment to the Government, Civil and Religious, so happily established, and so purely preserved, by the discerning Wisdom and Care of your Majesty and your illustrious Ancestors.

We further beg Leave to express to your Majesty our zealous Attachment to the present Form of our admired Constitution, to which (under Divine Favor) we are indebted for the unexampled Prosperity and real Liberty enjoyed by your Majesty's Subjects, and which happy Experience have taught us can only exist under the Protection of Law and the Authority of a well-regulated Government.

Impressed with these Opinions, we think it our Duty, and it is our firm Determination, to support your Majesty's well-timed Resolution, and counteract every Measure that may be used to subvert the Peace and good Order of our Country, by those who mistake Licentiousness for Freedom, and Anarchy for the Rights of Man.

That your Majesty may long, very long, enjoy the Blessing of Health, and continue to reign over a free, united, and loyal People, is, and ever shall be, our most earnest Wish and Prayer.

[Transmitted by Sir Alexander Hood.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Presbytery of Hamilton, met at Hamilton the 17th Day of July, 1792.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Ministers and Elders of the Presbytery of Hamilton, beg Leave to approach your Throne with Hearts full of Gratitude for the invaluable Blessings we enjoy under the benign Influence of your Majesty's just and auspicious Government.

Actuated by an inviolable Attachment to your Majesty's Person, and with a sacred Veneration for the Excellence of our present Constitution, we humbly entreat your Majesty to accept of our most grateful Thanks for your late Royal Proclamation, which conveys to us a fresh Proof of your Majesty's constant Solicitude for the Tranquillity and Happiness of your People.

We reprobate with one Voice those seditious Publications and criminal Correspondences which have justly excited your Majesty's Displeasure, which are subversive of all proper Subordination and good Government, and which, unless counteracted, might be productive of the most alarming and dangerous Consequences to your Majesty's peaceable and dutiful Subjects.

And while we thus testify our Abhorrence of such Measures we at the same time beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that as in Gratitude and Duty bound, so it will be our constant Endeavour to instil into the Minds of those with whom we are connected, together with the Fear and Love of God, Sentiments of Loyalty

Loyalty to your Majesty, of Obedience to the Laws, and of unshaken Attachment to that Constitution, Civil and Religious, so long and so happily established within these Realms.

That Almighty God, by whom Kings reign, may make the Reign of your Majesty long and prosperous, and that the established Form of the British Government may remain, unimpaired, the Admiration of future, as it has been of past Ages, is our most fervent and sincere Prayer,

May it please your Majesty,

Your Majesty's most faithful, most obedient,
and most loyal Subjects,

The Ministers and Elders of the Presbytery of Hamilton.

Signed in our Name, in our Presence, and by our Appointment, by

James French, Moderator,

[Transmitted by the Duke of Hamilton.]

Unto the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Nobility, Freeholders,
Justices of the Peace, Commissioners of Supply,
and Heritors of the County of Kincardine.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's loyal Subjects, crave Leave to express our Thankfulness for the Attention shewn by your Majesty to the Welfare of your People in your late gracious Proclamation, cautioning them to guard against all Attempts, by the Publication of seditious Writings or other Means, tending to destroy the Peace, and to subvert the glorious Constitution of the Kingdom.

Deeply impressed with a true Sense of the Excellence of the Constitution of these Realms as established at the Revolution, and of the many Blessings derived to us by your Majesty's paternal Care to have it inviolably preserved, we, in the strongest Terms, do assure your Majesty, that in our several Stations we shall exert ourselves in the most arduous Manner to suppress all Attempts to infringe on a Government so wisely calculated to secure Happiness to us and our Posterity.

May your Majesty live long, to reign over a happy People and to enjoy the Blessings of domestic Felicity, is the sincere Prayer of,

May it please your Majesty,

The Nobility, Freeholders, Justices of the Peace, Commissioners of Supply and
Heritors of the County of Kincardine.

Signed in Name, and by Appointment of the Meeting at Stonehaven, July 7, 1792.
